at the close of the 1968 football season many grafton students might have felt that a record of three wins, four losses and two ties was less than could be expected—those were the ones who didn't attend the games. but for those who cheered the indians on, a feeling of proudness could never be lost for a team that fought so resolutely. as one worcester sportswriter phrased it, grafton is one of the few teams with comparable records "that has been 'in' every game it has played." and when grafton has a halfback who fights for every inch of ground, a lineman who drives through every double team, a linebacker who picks off every play, or any other outstanding player, it can't help having a team that puts out 100%.

dribble it,
drive it,
run.
pant,
grow tired.
but follow its course.
shiver.
shake.
who needs the sun?
run, girl.
you've no cause for remorse.

fifty yard line.
bully.
ground and sticks.
don't lose the ball.
where's your control?
tempers flare.
inflict some nicks.
but keep your cool,
when you kneel to roll.

goal post.
double "t"
signify: victory.
farther?
just a little.
one more scoop.
there it's done.
what more's there to see?
be jubilant.
cheer!
you've knocked them for a loop.

girls' basketball

the grafton high girls' basketball team came up with a tremendous 1969 season by achieving a 12-1 record. their only defeat was to leicester high, but in the second match between the two, the grafton squaws fought their way on to victory by putting on a fine exhibition of speed, skill and accuracy. the girls' team effort proved to be a major contributing factor to their success.

as a teacher of home economics for twelve years, she has helped to develop hundreds of young women into capable and efficient homemakers. she is also recognized as the advisor of the junior red cross, a civic as well as school organization. with a quiet personality, she is little acknowledged for her contributions. she has been responsible for refreshments at innumerable affairs including junior proms, national honor society installations, and afs receptions. it was once said that many little things compound themselves into something much greater. indeed, it is so. the class of 1969, therefore, dedicates this yearbook to mrs. beatrice wood.

Do not stand at my grave and weep . . .
I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awake in the morning's hush,
I am the swift upflinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star-shine at night . . .

Do not stand at my grave and cry . . .
I am not there, I did not die.
